New Artwork – Nightmare 2010

September 15th, 2010

I don't have nightmares often , in fact I can't remember the last one I had but I had a HUM DINGER of one and I dreamed my 5 yr old fell into a sewage pit (I don't think I've ever actually seen one so don't ask me where that came from) and the hole wasn't big enough for anyone (including me) to dive in, grab him and come up – I could only watch his bubbles as he was drowning...

HORRIBLE Dream

so i painted it – when I had bad thoughts and the rare bad dream – i paint them and then I feel better because it's out of my head and on someone else's walls.

SKinney (my partner) has bad dreams almost every night but he never discusses them.

Nightmare 2010 is on Ebay at the moment

Arghhhhhh! And I'm Not Even a Pirate!

August 24th, 2010

Wow August didn't start off so hot.

The basement room we work in developed a water issue in the brickwork and our friend mold moved in - on a bunch of completed sculptures - we can't sell moldy artworks and send the spores out in the world so some immediate mold remediation was in order - man does it SUCK.

So we dry lok'd the basement and three coats later - all seems well in our basement world - we just got back to creating this week and we'll have some cool stuff to show you soon!

J & SKinney 😊

4 New Improved Photos :)

July 21st, 2010

Did 4 new improved photos ....

I Will Love You Even After We're Rotted and Dead....

if you love each other you'll stick it out - even through the ugly times...

Party Boy 2010

Another in the party boy series....'nuff said.

Control Freak Ron

I detest guys like Ron... I knew a girl and her mother had to go shower and get dressed to the nines to greet her husband at the door every day after work, then make him a drink and give him a manicure - which is cool if you wanna do that and show a hard working partner appreciation but she was forced to do it - he'd do stuff like push her out the front door in nothing but a towel or just yell if she didn't. He also demanded each and every person around the table thank him for going work every day before they were allowed to touch the food on their plates. I was lucky enough to be invited over for dinner one day for that one.
Jerk.

Irma's Teeth

This lady clearly had no choppers but then I thought perhaps she conveniently left them around her neck so when she needed them for corn on the cob - well there they were ready to go!

See 'em all and more at Ebay tomorrow morning at the link above on the top right!

Well Fudge.... Water Damage .....

July 21st, 2010

Ground water decided to make an appearance in my tiny little basement art studio and only 5 things got destroyed by water damage but why did the #@$%^&*( water have to choose the area I store paper mache sculptures to seep in at????? Geez why not over where I am working on a metal sculpture? So duly Dryloking the walls although a friend recommended Duck Bak (not ure of the spelling) - thank you Bryan.

On the positive side - I have 5 new improved photos to share soon (they are drying) and back to sculpting again 😊

Saturday is a Fun Day.....

June 5th, 2010

Today we were in the King Wamba Parade here in Toledo. Skinney drove and I assumed chief navigator seat. Our little man was in the backseat and our daughter was walking dogs in the parade – very cool.

You can see photos here www.toledoartcarklub.com

Now back to painting. We have a lot to show you! Photos and/or video of what's going on in the art room soon!

Today was a Freakin' Fun Time :)

May 30th, 2010

Today we painting and did art most of the day – then we took our adult to Lickity Split and met up with ArtCar Mark and the fabulous Melanie Harris to support Mark for a Toledo.com interview about the art cars in Toledo and the upcoming Wamba parade. Photos are at TACK. www.toledoartcarklub.com
